Waters.

Dispatches to the BOSTON AMERICAN from Cuttyhunk, Mass., report that a yacht, suspected of being the smuggler Frolic, which one week ago sailed from Havana Bay, N. Y., with thirty-five Chinese aboard, was seen passing through the straits in tow of a tug.

The mysterious boat was apparently bound across the bay to Newport. This morning came in from the eastward last night and seemed to be undisturbed when it was sighted.

A man, supposed to be an officer in the yacht, was seen on the deck. He was dark, with a mustache, and was wearing a light-colored uniform. It is believed that he had a light complexion, but that he was a Chinese. It is also thought that the yacht is carrying a large number of coolies.

The yacht is believed to be carrying a large number of coolies, and it is thought that the yacht is carrying a large number of coolies.

The revenue cutters Gretna and Dexter, patrolling the South shore of Long Island Sound, are also patrolling the coast and a search is being made for the yacht.

Communication is also being maintained with the tugboat, and it is expected that the yacht will be captured at any time.

The immigration and revenue officials have redoubled their vigilance, and are keeping a close watch on the yacht.

The yacht is believed to be carrying a large number of coolies, and it is thought that the yacht is carrying a large number of coolies.

THE YACHT FROLIC, SOUGHT AS A SMUGGLER, AND A GROUP OF COOLIES SUCH AS ARE SUPPOSED TO BE ON BOARD.

These Common-Sense Costumes, All Suited to the Woman of Moderate Pocketbook, Are Three Essentials for a Winter Outfit for the Business Girl

Every Girl Should Have a Sensible Coat, a Neat Plaid Waist and a Pretty House Dress

By Grace Hyman

THE Winter outfit is at this season of the year the most important topic to all women, and the business girl has a great many things to consider in the choice of her wardrobe.

The costumes described here are the simple and necessary ones that a woman of slender means would need and afford.

For a busy woman who has to go out in all weathers, a comfortable warm coat is just the thing, and a every day made fresh with clean cuffs and collars, the office costume is complete.

It is well to choose this in a color not too light, so as to avoid the expense of dyes.

If this dress is made in the new jumper style and in a dark enough shade it may be worn over a plain or fancy vest and sleeves as suit the occasion.

With such an outfit a girl will be well dressed, and, if she chooses wisely, need not spend much money in making her outfit and trim.

PLAID SHIRTWAIST

skirt of the same shade in some lighter weight material or in plaid, matching pretty well in color. It is more satisfactory for general wear than a skirt. In choosing a coat, which in all probability you will wear for two or three seasons, it is wise to avoid the extremes of fashion.

This Fall a good model to select would be the semi-empire cut. This fits closely enough to make it neat and becoming to almost any figure.

This particular one is of a neat brown broadcloth, brown being the fashionable color for the coming Winter, and a good choice as well for the woman whose clothes get constant wear, as it does not gather dust as black will or fade like many other colors.

Around the neck is a narrow bit of fur as trimming which can easily be added if the coat cannot be bought that way.

With a pretty plaid skirt waist of some soft woolen goods either to match a plaid skirt or in contrast to a plain one, and

BABY POINTERS FOR MOTHERS

The daily nap is of the greatest service to growing children, and once the habit is formed it can easily be kept up, and the child's health and vigor sustained even in trying weather.

Boys and girls should be early taught to swim. Swimming is a splendid exercise. It expands the chest, promotes and develops the muscles. It gives both boys and girls courage, energy and self-reliance.

SPECIED CURRANTS

FOUR quarts currants (ripe), three and one-half pounds brown sugar, one pint vinegar, one tablespoon allspice, one tablespoon cloves, and a little nutmeg; boil an hour, stirring occasionally. Currants must be selected in the sun.

MRS. GEORGE H. HURLAGE.

GERMAN DILL PICKLES

SELECT sound, fresh, small cucumbers. Wash, let stand in water six to eight hours. Take them out and dry with a cloth. Put in a stone crock a layer of garlic leaves, then a layer of cucumbers, a small amount of dill, whole cloves and bay leaves. Repeat all same until the crock is full. Take enough water to fill crock, put in salt, vinegar, one-half pound sugar, and a little nutmeg. Boil the water, vinegar and salt, and pour it over the cucumbers. Cover and put weight on cover.

MRS. J. BROWN.

ORANGE CAKE

ONE and one-half cups pastry flour, three-fourths cup sugar, two-thirds cup butter, two eggs, one fourth cup lard, one-half cup milk, and a little nutmeg. Mix and stir ingredients together. Bake in a hot oven for ten minutes. Cover and put weight on cover.

MRS. J. BROWN.

PICKLED PEACHES

SIX and one-half cups pastry flour, three-fourths cup sugar, two-thirds cup butter, two eggs, one fourth cup lard, one-half cup milk, and a little nutmeg. Mix and stir ingredients together. Bake in a hot oven for ten minutes. Cover and put weight on cover.

MRS. J. BROWN.

VEGETABLE PUDDING

ONE cup grated carrot, one cup grated raw potato, one cup chopped radish, one cup butter, one cup sugar, one cup milk, and a little nutmeg. Mix and stir ingredients together. Bake in a hot oven for ten minutes. Cover and put weight on cover.

MRS. J. BROWN.

WHICH OF THESE ANSWERS IS THE RIGHT SOLUTION?

MATHEMATICIANS and guessers are busy figuring on Jan's age. Here are a few of the solutions received this morning. Which of them is right?

"APPROXIMATELY"

HAVING worked out the Jan problem, I have the age of the youngest sister to five years and eight months, and Jan's age is twenty-two years, and the age of the oldest sister is twenty-five years. As Jan's age would be five and eight months, and the age of the oldest sister is twenty-five years, and the age of the youngest sister is five years and eight months, the answer will be Jan's age is twenty-two years.

LOWELL, MASS.

NOT QUITE RIGHT

JANE was eight times the age of Eva, and there were fifteen children and fifteen months. This shows that Jane was 12 1/2 months, and Eva was 1 1/2 months. As Jane was 12 1/2 months, and Eva was 1 1/2 months, the answer will be Jan's age is twenty-two years.

WILLIAM LORAK.

8 TIMES 1 1/2

MY answer to the age of Jane is twenty-two years and eight months. As Eva's youngest sister is one and one-half years and eight months in the family and just one and a half exactly between them

HOW OLD IS JANE?

Here is a Problem That Puzzled the Court—See if You Can Solve It.

ONE of the city judges, the other day, encountered a problem that is still puzzling him. Among the witnesses in a case was a woman who had been called to tell of a quarrel which led up to a hair-pulling affair between two of her neighbors in a big tenement house.

She took the stand and was sworn, and counsel for the defendant asked her name.

"Jane Symonds," she answered.

"How old are you?" asked the lawyer.

"Well," responded the witness, "I am the oldest of the family. There are fifteen of us, and there is just a year and eight months between the birthdays. I am just eight times the age of my youngest sister, who is the youngest of the family. You can figure it out for yourself."

The Court and the lawyers are still figuring. See if you can make it out, and if you think your answer is correct send it to PUZZLE EDITOR, BOSTON AMERICAN, No. 50 SUMMIT STREET.
